

DECK CADET

COMPANY INFORMATION

Company Name	Valaris Limited
Brief Description of Company's Core Business	Valaris Limited (Valaris) is a provider of offshore drilling services to the global oil and gas industry. It owns and operates a fleet of drillships, semisubmersibles, moored semisubmersibles, premium jack-ups and deepwater managed units. Valaris offers standardized rig designs, equipment and operating systems and its customers include multinational energy companies, national oil companies and independent operators. The company has a presence in the major offshore basins across the world. It has major offices in Australia, Angola, Nigeria, Norway, United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates, Mexico and United States (HQ).

POSITION REQUIREMENT

Year of Intake	2025
Job Title	DECK CADET
Job Description	The Deck Cadet is responsible for assisting the Captain and officers in various tasks onboard, including navigational duties, maintenance of deck equipment, and ensuring the safety of the drillship. They also help in operational activities and watchkeeping on a ship.
Duties & Responsibilities (as stated in Training Record Book 'TRB')	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Completes in preparing reports, projects, and presentations as required by the program and engages in offshore work and developmental training. ▪ Supports emergency response efforts, including personal emergency actions and assisting with survival craft and rescue boats on board. ▪ Assists deck crew in maintaining steelwork, deck equipment, and personal, health, safety, and environmental standards on the vessel. ▪ Contributes to maintaining a navigational watch under supervision of the senior officer. ▪ Supports the deck crew with vessel mooring, anchoring, and securing operations and helps build productive working relationships on board.

INTERNSHIP REQUIREMENT

Mode of Training	Offshore assignments on deepwater drillship (Onsite)
Desired Duration	12 months (flexible training schedule with interval onshore breaks)
Desired Attributes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Effective leadership skills ▪ Enthusiastic desire to learn ▪ Collaborative and team-oriented mindset ▪ Strong problem-solving abilities ▪ Confident in oral and written communication ▪ Adaptability to new environments and situations ▪ Ability to organize work tasks efficiently ▪ Sound analytical and planning skills
Entry Requirement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Must be full-time student enrolled with accredited maritime institution ▪ Must possess a valid international passport ▪ Medical certificate of fitness for offshore work ▪ Able to travel overseas for offshore assignments ▪ Valid immunization record/certificates
Academic Background	Preferred maritime-related academic study for Deck Cadet
Compensation & Benefit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Competitive pay ▪ On board training and mentorship ▪ International assignments ▪ Coverage of airfares & accommodation ▪ Travel insurance & related expenses

APPLICATION PROCESS

Application Process	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Current opening is cadet sea-time training intake for 2025 ▪ Valaris conducts interview process directly with the shortlisted cadets ▪ Qualified female applicants are welcome apply for the position ▪ To apply, please email your cover letter and updated CV (in English) to: recruitment-meaap@valaris.com
Future Opportunities - The Next Step	This program is utilized to identify talent, which may lead to potential candidacy for permanent positions within the organization.