RECTOR

Warsaw, 21 March 2024

*Professor Bradford Parkinson
Doctor honoris causa
of the Gdynia Maritime University*

Dear Professor!

It is my true pleasure and joy to congratulate you on the award of the title of doctor honoris causa of the Gdynia Maritime University.

With great joy I have received the Senate's decision to honour with the highest academic dignity an outstanding engineer and inventor, who personally managed the launch of the first GPS satellites to the orbit and cooperated in the development of this navigation system. Your contribution to the advancement of modern positioning technologies deserves the highest respect.

I am certain that the title is a distinction for you but also for the community of the Gdynia Maritime University, which could meet an outstanding scientist and a renowned authority.

I assure you that on this important day, with the whole Warsaw University of Technology we share your happiness. Along with the congratulations, please accept my best wishes of further success, health, optimism and all the best.

Yours sincerely

Professor Krzysztof Zaremba
